AUDITORS' CERTIFICATE.

Conway, N. H., Feb. 22, 1907.

We hereby certify that we have examined the accounts of the Road Agents for the town of Conway for the fiscal year ending Feb. 15, 1907, and find them to be correct with proper vouchers on file for full account paid by them.

H B. COTTON,

H. H. DOW,

Auditors.

Report of Conway Police Court

FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEB. 15, 1907.

We respectfully submit the following report of the Conway Police Court:

During the year 61 cases have been presented to the Court and passed upon as follows:

Assault,	1
Issuing fraudulent certificate to obtain liquor at drug store,	1
Suits for Damages,	3
Larceny,	7
Trustee Process,	8
Illegal Sale of Liquor and Search and Seizure	10
Drunkenness,	31
	61

Of the above cases, 15 have been against parties residing in other towns. Lest it be thought from the above that our people are becoming more addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, we are pleased to record that of the 31 cases for drunkenness brought before the Court, only 4 of them were against bona fide citizens of Conway. By far the largest number of cases were against those who were making Conway a temporary residence, engaged in the preliminary work in connection with some of our new enterprises.

The Court has brought no expense to the town, the Justice taking the fees in lieu of a salary, in accordance with a vote of the town. As in the past, regular Court sessions are held when required, to consider cases entered, the first Wednesday of each month as follows:

At North Conway, January, April, July and October.

At Conway, February, May, August and November.

At Center Conway, March, June, September and December.

The Court has been ready at all times to hear special cases when brought before it.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. GIBSON, Justice.

H. B. FIFIELD, Special Justice.

HENRY B. COTTON,

HIRAM H. DOW,

Auditors for the School Dist. of Conway.

School Report.

In our report for this fiscal year, we do not hesitate to say that the school district of Conway has enjoyed the best school year in its history. The schools, as a whole, throughout the town have made a marked improvement, the improvement being more marked in those schools where the same teachers have taught this year who taught in the preceding year or years, while the results have not been all the Board could wish in those where frequent changes have been made. It is these instances that make us feel that a good teacher once found should be kept as long as she gets good results, even though it means increasing her salary so that it will be equivalent to what she could get elsewhere. The best teachers are none too good for our scholars. There are plenty of teachers to be had, but good ones who make a success of our schools are not easily found. Conway has at the present time an unusually fine corps of teachers for a town of its size.

By referring to the financial report, it will be noticed that the cost per week of maintaining our schools has increased, owing to the fact that the salaries of some of our teachers have been increased in order to keep them with us, and also that we have to pay more for transportation over certain routes. But in spite of this increased cost per week of maintaining our schools, with the liberal appropriation made last Spring, we have been able to lengthen the school year from thirty one to thirty-four weeks. For this opportunity to increase the length of the school year we wish to thank the tax-payers, and further hope that at least the same sum may be raised this year.

Some of our rural schools are continually growing smaller, and where this is true, it is impossible to keep up the standard of the schools as compared with the larger ones. A good teacher cannot be found who will stay in one of these small schools any length of time, and will do thoroughly good work, when she can get a larger salary and make a much better showing as a teacher in a larger school. In other words, having taught in such schools does not give her a desirable standing as an applicant for a good position, nor does it yield the financial return that a larger school would even though she has the same ability and makes the same effort. We think these schools should be consolidated and make one good sized school where a better teacher could be procured and better results obtained from the additional enthusiasm aroused by numbers in the school: Such cases as the above furnish a strong argument for the plan of consolidation.

The measles at Conway Center and the whooping cough at North Conway have to some extent broken up the attendance of these schools, which has been a source of regret to both teachers and the Board, but which was, of course, unavoidable.

The North Conway Grammar School graduated as its class of 1906: Albion S. Eastman, Perley H. Buswell, Harold E. Sinclair, Carl O. Randall, A. Philip Seavey, George L. Kenison, Horace Horne, Mary E. Willey, Louise D. Sawyer, Vera E. Pickard, Ethel B. Perry, Leah M. Barnes, Esther Swanson: Class motto being, "To be, rather than to seem."

The Conway Grammar School graduated: Martha B. Fifield, Hazel Shackford, Mattie B. Savory, Leah M. Robinson, Vergie A. Broughton, Audrey S. Robinson, Pearl M. Warren, Mina B. Hiscock, Ruth A. Kennett, John C. Abbott, Carl K. Chase: Class motto, "Certum pete finem." The graduation exercises in both villages were exceptionally good for Grammar Schools.

Harold Potter was graduated from the Center Grammar School, and Clayton Heath and Fred Roberts from East Conway. No special exercises attended these graduations.

Owing to the sickness of the respective teachers of the East Conway and Green Hill schools, a part of the school year will unavoidably be lost.

The resignation of Mrs. Katharine O. Snyder as teacher of the North Conway Primary School was much regretted, but the Board was especially fortunate in securing Miss Marion Holmes, formerly of the McMillan school, as her successor. Miss Louise Berry, who succeeded Miss Holmes at the McMillan school, and Miss Leslie G. Cameron at Echo Lake, have proved valuable additions to our teaching corps.

REPAIRS.

Sheathing has been purchased for wood ceiling in the Grammar and Intermediate rooms at Conway Village, which will be put up during the coming vacation. Water has been put into the McMillan school house, and repairs made at Redstone and West Side school buildings. We recommend that some windows be put in the south end of the North Conway Grammar and Intermediate rooms, and the seats reversed in the Intermediate room. On dark days and during the winter term there is not sufficient light in either of these rooms, thus causing strain of the pupils' eyes. We feel this condition should be remedied at once. At the Center school either a new furnace or some stoves must be purchased.

The McMillan and Four Corners school-houses need painting, and it will be economy to give both the Center and No. 8 school-houses a coat of paint, because if left longer the cost of doing the work will be considerably greater.

It is a fact to be regretted by every family sending scholars to our schools that we have no high school in Conway, where our students can get the advantages of high school training without going out of town, and it is to be hoped that we shall soon see one here.

We wish to thank the taxpayers, citizens, teachers, and all who have assisted us in any way to make the schools what they are, and we sincerely hope that the same co-operation may continue and the standard of our schools be raised until we are second to none.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR E. KENISON,

JOHN C. L. WOOD,

ABBIE M. D. BLOUIN,

School Board of Conway.

EASTMAN FUND.

By the will of William W. Eastman, of Minneapolis, Minn., a former and respected citizen of Conway Village, very generously remembered his native town by leaving the sum of $1500.00 to be used for the benefit of the Library Association at "Conway Corner."

After a very protracted time in settling Mr. Eastman's estate, and from the fact that the Library Association in Conway Village had been made a town library, the executors of Mr. Eastman's estate refused to turn the money over until some specific purpose could be determined upon for the use of the donation, as the old Library Association had voted to disband. The Executors of Mr. Eastman's estate and the Trustees of the Conway Public Library finally agreed that the money should be used for the purchase of books.

There is a balance on hand in Casco National Bank of $1,359 81 after paying for books approved by Board of Trustees.

Report of Public Library.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN CONWAY PUBLIC LIBRARY AT CONWAY, N. H., FOR YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1906.

From one year to another the work of the Library continues about the same, with added interest as new readers come in and take up new lines of reading. No new books being added during the year except a few given by friends, the circulation decreased, until we lost the gain made during the previous year. The total circulation for the year was 5116 books, of which 3115 were fiction: 1437 juvenile; 62 biography; 59 history; 63 travel; 3 religious, and 77 miscellaneous; making a daily average of 49.69-103, as the Library was open 103 days.

We wish to pay tribute to the memory of the faithful assistant, Eva Walton Page, who has been called away during the year. Always ready for duty, pleasant and painstaking in her work, she is much missed by both patrons and Librarian.

The usual friends have supplied books, magazines, and papers for the reading room. We wish to extend thanks to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kennett, Mr. E. A. Kaharl, Mr. W. A. Blood, Mrs. H. B. Fifield, Mr. T. W. Silloway, Mr. C. W. Wilder, Mrs. Mary Redlon, Mrs. Lucy S. Davis, Mrs. R. B. Thom, Mr. Charles Mills, Rev. J. H. Irvine, and Mr. C. E. Blanchard; and to Mr. Geo. S. Pitts, who has added to the curio department a piece of the old frigate "Constitution."

With the promise of new books soon, we feel sure the interest will increase.

Our young people, especially, are interested, and like a good class of reading.

We wish to thank all our friends who, by encouraging words, or in any way, have aided in the work of the Library.

LOUISE H. BATES, Librarian.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY AT CONWAY CENTER.

The work in the Library the past year has been more interesting and pleasant than for several years past; the increased interest being due to the addition of new books several times during the year, which was brought about by a vote of the town at the last annual meeting, instructing the Library Trustees to expend one hundred dollars of the annual appropriation for the Library at Center Conway. In behalf of the patrons of the Library I wish to thank the voters for this act, and trust the same vote will again be taken this year.

The people of our summer colony along the shores of Pequaket Lake have in many ways by words of cheer and appreciation and deeds of kindness added to the pleasant work in the Library.

Through the kindness of friends the reading table has been supplied with a variety of Magazines. Mrs. J. E. Morrill has kindly continued the subscription for the Outlook; another friend supplied the necessary means whereby Review of Reviews, Success, Everybody's, Woman's Home Companion, and Travel Magazine have been regularly received; we have also had Ladies Home Journal and Good Housekeeping. We are also grateful to Willie Perry for the Saturday Evening Post and the Roof Tree Magazine, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Patterson, Boston, for Munsey, The Red Book, and Ladies Home Journal for one year.

During the year we have received as gifts eight books from Mr. J. D. Wells and family, one from Henry B. Cotton; two through Miss Hamblen from Rev. J. H. Irvine, one from Mary Evans, one from Mrs. Blouin, four from Mrs. Clay Hollister, thirteen from Mrs. Amy Snow, twelve from Mr. J. A. Carlton; and from the one hundred dollars appropriated there have been placed upon the shelves one hundred and sixty-one volumes.

The book circulation has been: 1332 fiction, 853 juvenile, 216 miscellaneous, a total of 2401.

We hope the Library will be as well supported in the new year with increased interest and patronage. Again thanking all who have shown interest in Center Conway Library,

I very respectfully submit this report.

ABBIE M. D. BLOUIN, Librarian.
